May 2. Some letters from Antigua say, that the late measures taken by the French court to obstruct the trade between their islands and the British American colonies, were severely felt by the inhabitants of the former, being not only distressed in the article of provisions, but cannot find a market for half their produce of rum, molasses, &c. without selling them to the Dutch and Danes at a very low price.

In the act of accession of the three great cities of Thorn, Elbing, and Danzick, to the confederation of the 10th ult. is the following passage:—"We accede and take part in this act of confederation of the whole Dissident Noblesse of this province, and the kingdom of Poland (under the high protection of her Majesty the Empress of all the Russias, and of his Majesty the King of Prussia) for the re-establishment of all our rights, spiritual and temporal, and we engage to act ourselves in concert in every thing that concerns the ecclesiastical and political rights of the province of Prussia, as well those of the Noblesse, as the cities, and to employ our whole power, our effects and lives, for the re-establishment, conservation, and defence of these rights, and in no respect to separate ourselves from this confederation, until under the high protection of her Imperial Majesty, and the other high guarantees of the peace of Oliva, the spiritual rights of all in general, and each in particular, be entirely re-established, and have resumed their antient force; protesting nevertheless, that we will inviolably persevere in our duty, and the fidelity owing and sworn to his Majesty, the King, our most gracious master; and reserving to ourselves the perfect enjoyment of all our rights and immunities."

Extract of a letter from on board the Dolphin man of war, dated in Port Famine, in the Straights of Magellan, the first of January.

"I am sorry, I cannot hear from you in answer of your well-doing, by reason no ships came this way, so that I rest contented until I have the pleasure of seeing you myself, which may be in about two years time, for we are going to find out as much as possible. We have been among the tall men, and have had some of them on board us, but but none exceeding eight feet height: The common run is about seven feet and an half, who all ride upon horses, most white, with wooden spurs. They have two stones, which are slung in a sort of a skin, some distance from one another, with which they heave out of their hands, and kill wild fowl, which is pretty plenty; they being of a savage nature, eat the flesh of those fowls raw. As for any other particulars, shall let them alone until my return. I remain, dear Sir, Yours, &c. &c."

A Letter from Paris, dated May 15, says, "Though the preceding Advices from Rome had given Room to believe that the Pope was determined to receive the Jesuits in his Dominions, the last Letters inform us, that the Pontiff had sent Orders to the Governor of Civita-Vecchia not to permit their Landing, till he received farther Orders, but to furnish them with the necessary Refreshments. The Letters add, that two Couriers had been sent to Madrid, charged with Dispatches, representing on the Part of his Holiness, to his Catholic Majesty, "That if the Jesuits are guilty, they are not sufficiently punished; and too much so, if they are innocent. That the Laws seem to require, that Citizens shall not be driven from their Country, till after they have undergone a Trial, to make evident the Proofs of their Crime: That, as to the rest, though it is in the Power of his Catholic Majesty to treat his Subjects in such a Manner as may seem fit and convenient to him, yet he cannot oblige any other Sovereign to give them an Asylum in his Dominions; and that if the Catholic Powers should all think proper to suppress the different religious Orders in the Countries under their Dominions; and consign them to the Disposal of his Holiness, not only the Ecclesiastical State, but the whole Country of Italy, would be too small to contain all those Inhabitants, &c."

May 30. Capt. Smith, of the Tryphena, who arrived at Liverpool on Monday se'nnight from Pensacola, on his Passage thither, being driven upon the grand Babama Bank, in three Fathom Water, Nov. 30, sent out his Long-Boat, and three Men, to sound a little to the Westward, which was carried away by the Rapidity of the Current, and though the Ship lay to a Night and a Day, with Lights out, and Guns firing, they could not hear of the Boat, but it is hoped they gained Cuba, or some other Island.

But it is thought that this last Part, with respect to the Maidens, so far as it relates to Natives of their own Country, will not be complied with."

BOSTON, August 6.

Capt. Geneste, from Liverpool, July 11, lat 42: 6 N. long. 59 W. spoke the ship Sir Henry Moore, Samuel Webb, master, from New-York for Amsterdam, being out ten days.

We hear that Capt. Springer, who about three years ago failed from hence in a sloop for Virginia, but meeting with very bad weather, his sails and rigging were torn to pieces, and his vessel receiving so much other damage, that for a long time she was left to the mercy of the seas, and being drove a considerable way to the eastward in great distress, he luckily met with a French ship outward bound to the East-Indies, who took him with his people on board, from whence he returned to Calco-Bay, a few days since, in a vessel arrived there from Europe. —He has been so long missing, and given over for lost, that it is said his wife was lately entered into wedlock, with another person.

Monday last one Patrick Sennet, a sea-faring man complaining in the forenoon of being not well, applied to a physician, who gave him some medicine which relieved him, and thereupon returned to his work, contrary to advice, the weather being very hot. At one o'clock he went home to dinner, said he felt as well as ever he did in his life, sat down in his chair, fainted, and died instantly.

Governor Hutchinson, and Mr. Secretary Oliver would have been of the Board, but are provided for another way, by salaries to be paid them out of the revenues raised on duties on several articles of commerce, by which they, with all the officers of the crown, will be rendered independent of the people: —That the chief Justice of the superior court was to have 500l. and the Secretary 300l. per ann. —That the duty of 1s. paid on tea in England was taken off, and 3d. laid in America. —That the rates on lemons, wine, fruit, &c. and also upon sheet, ground and flint glass, lead, colours, paper, &c. were not yet fix'd, but would be at the meeting of the Parliament next week after their adjournment for Whitsuntide holidays; and that the debenture of china ware exported would be but one half. —That nothing would be attempted by way of internal taxation of the colonies: —And that the address of the House of Commons to the King in behalf of Gentlemen who suffered in the colonies during the late troubles, praying for some recompence or peculiar marks of the royal favour to them, was graciously answered by assurances of his Majesty's intention to reward them for their attachment to government.

We also hear that the act of compensation and indemnity, lately passed here, was disallowed.

Saturday last Capt. McNeil and yesterday Capt. McCarroll arrived here from Quebec, who inform, That on their passage they fell in with a number of whalemens, and were told that two vessels were cast away in the Straights of Belleisle, one of them Capt. Colman from this port; but could not learn who the other was. —The whalemens in general had very good success; some having from 80 to 100 barrels of oil on board.

HARTFORD, August 10.

Last week a person was committed to the gaol in this town, on suspicion of counterfeiting mill'd dollars; and two other persons taken up on the like suspicion procured bonds for their appearance at court, and another person had been committed to Springfield gaol on the same account. Many of their dollars are made in so bungling a manner, that any person who has ever seen a dollar, may very easily discover the cheat.

Last Tuesday two transient persons were taken up at Windsor, for committing each of them two thefts, and received sixteen lashes on each of their backs: Eight for each offence. The next day they were committed to gaol in this town, to take their trials at the superior court next month, for breaking open and robbing a house at Windsor.

We hear from East-Haddam, that last Thursday morning a young man, named Smith, who the preceding evening had left a tavern, was found dead by a log; his head very much bruised. The jury's verdict was, That his death was occasioned by a fall over the log.

PHILADELPHIA, August 13.

Extract of a Letter from London, June 5.

"I am now to tell you exactly what Duties the Parliament have laid for America, viz. Four Shillings and Eight Pence per Hundred on Crown, Plate Flint and White Glass, imported into the Colonies; One Shilling and Two Pence per Hundred on Green Glass; Two Shillings per Hundred on Red and White Lead, and Painters Colours; and Three Pence Pence per Pound on Tea, imported in the said Colonies."

Another Letter of June 6, says, Captain Lawrence, from New-York, is arrived in London; and the Packet at Falmouth.

On Tuesday Night, last Week, the House of Mr. Israel Pemberton was robbed, and upwards of One Hundred and Twenty Pounds, in Gold, Silver, and Paper Money, taken out of his Escuratore. The Shutter of one of the Back Parlour Windows was bored through, the Key drawn out of the Bolt, and the Hole stopped with Putty. No Marks of Violence appeared on the Escuratore, but it was opened by a Key, and locked again. —In the Paper Money there were several Five Pound Bills —Of the Silver, some English Shillings, one particularly of Queen Elizabeth —Of the Gold, several of the new milled Spanish Dubloons, and some remarkable small Pieces; one of them with a Hole bored thro' it. A few Nights before, the House of Mr. Willoughby, a Butcher, in Second-street, near the Barracks, was robbed, and about £.20 taken out of a Desk; also a Quantity of Womens Wearing Apparel carried off.

A Gentleman at Fort Pitt, writes of the 28th of July, that the first Week of that Month the Frost was so severe, as to spoil a Garden at the East End of the Lawrel Hill, and killed a Number of Shrubs and Buhes. And that on the 27th of the same Month, the Parties of the 21st and 34th Regiments, marched into that Garrison.

Saturday last, between two and three o'clock in the Afternoon, we had a severe Gult of Rain and Hail, with Lightning, when a Rick of Hay, of upwards of 30 Tons, on Greenwich Island, was struck by it, and set on Fire, which being observed by a Man standing under another Rick, he ran to the House, and informed the People thereof; upon which one Joseph Johnston climbed up the Rick, with a Callabash of Water, and being assisted by some others (who by that Time had got a Ladder) they with their Hats applied the Water so fast, that in a short Time the Fire was extinguished. He observed, in turning up the Hay, that it was much bruised; and the Fire was of a deep scarlet Colour, much exceeding that of a common Fire. The Lightning made a Hole about two Inches Diameter quite through the Rick, and the Fire had burnt about ten Feet down.

ASA SPALDING,
SAMUEL GRUMMAN, Trustees.

To the PUBLIC.
The NEW-YORK AIR FURNACE COMPANY,

HAVE lately erected an AIR FURNACE near the City, which after a considerable Expence, they have now got in proper Order, for casting in the neatest Manner, the under-mentioned Goods, which are equal to any imported from England, Scotland, Ireland, or even Holland, either for Shape, Lightness, boiling white, or standing Fire: They therefore hope the Public will encourage the Works, by giving the Preference to what is AMERICAN-MAKE, especially when the Price is full as low as any can be afforded for, that are imported from Europe, viz.

POTS, kettles, skillets, pot-ash kettles, and bottoms for calcining pot-ash, which they will warrant for three months, chimney backs, layers, and jamb-plates, agreeable to any pattern that shall be sent; forge and fullers plates, hatters basons, forge hammers and anvils, sugar-house boilers, stoves, pipes and grates, round and square stoves for work shops or house use, ships caboosees, perpetual ovens, pyc-pans, mill-roulles and gudgeons, fish weights, half hundreds, and smaller weights, cart, waggon, and chair boxes of any size, for iron or wooden axletrees; chaffing-dishes; besides many other articles in that way, which will be cast agreeable to any pattern that shall be delivered at the furnace, or to their Very humble Servants.

Peter T. Curtenus,
Gilbert Forbes, Richard Sharpe, and Thomas Randall.

N. B. The purchaser is desired to take notice, that he has the advantage at our furnace, to get a real ton of twenty hundred weight, small and large, all at one price, and no nominal ton of about fifteen or sixteen hundred weight, besides having much better ware; for it is allowed by proper Judges, that all castings in Air Furnaces, can be made lighter, more solid, and the metal more refin'd than what is cast in blast Furnaces, where all castings are made out of the ore; whereas in Air Furnaces, all is cast out of pigs, of course the ware is much clearer of honey-comb and dross.

SUPPLEMENT to the NEW-YORK JOURNAL,
OR GENERAL ADVERTISER.—NUMB. 1285.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 20, 1767.

P A R I S, May 15.

A few days ago the King lost his way in the forest of Senare, as he was hunting a deer which obliged his Majesty to take a post-chaise to go to Versailles, where he arrived very late in the night. The Prince de Beauveau, Captain of the King's Guards, was obliged to get behind the chaise, that he might not leave the person of the King.

Genoa, May 9. On the 5th Instant the Republic received Letters from Senator Pinelli, with Advice, that on the 3d Instant, before Day light he landed 150 Volunteers on the Island of Capraia, who marched three hours, and surprised a Piquet Guard of the Corsicans, of 16 Men, without being discovered: The ill-timed Zeal and Heat of an Officer, with a view of the Volunteers, to pursue five Corsicans they were at a little Distance, was the Occasion of their being discovered, and giving the Alarm to the whole Body of Corsicans, who immediately assembled their Arms, and marched against the Volunteers. By some Fatality, the Signal made from the Boats, after the Volunteers were landed, was not seen by the Vessels that had the other Troops on board, who were in support those already landed, and those Vessels by the Current were driven some Miles distant from the Island, so that the Corps of Volunteers was by this Fatality abandoned, and being overpowered by Numbers, only 19 of the whole Corps with great Difficulty got back to the Boats. Two Captains, one Lieutenant, one Ensign, and 41 Rank and File, were killed; four Captains, one Lieutenant, six Ensigns, one Cadet, one Sergeant, and 72 Rank and File, were taken Prisoners by the Corsicans, many of them wounded.

May 11. Col. Matra, who brought off our Troops on the 3d Instant from the Island of Capraia, under continual Fire, was slightly wounded in two Places. As soon as the Government received Advice of the Affair, they dispatched a Reinforcement of 400 Men, who are to join the other Troops under the Senator Pinelli, and attempt a second Disembarkation. When the last Letters came from Corsica, the Fort of Capraia still held out, after a Defence of near three Months.

Warsaw, May 9. The four Deputies from the Confederate Dissidents continue, by their Moderation and modest Behaviour, to gain the Affection and Friendship of the Senators, and other Grandees. The Address of their Grievances will probably produce a Negotiation, which will last a long while. The greatest Opposition that will be made against them will be by the Clergy.

Polish Prussia, May 11. The Russian Troops still observe the most exact Discipline, but an Accident has just happened which a little troubles the public Tranquillity. The Deputies of the Dissidents appearing at the Grod of Calioz, to register there the Act of Confederation of Thorn, the Officers of the Grod opposed it, and were abetted by some Gentlemen. Animosity induced them to attack and wound some Officers of the Dissident's Escort. The Cossacks, urged to Extremities, fell on the Assaultants, and secured their Persons, just as they were retreating into a Church. Prince Repnin, Ambassador from Russia, hath complained of those Gentlemen, and demanded Satisfaction.

Genoa, May 16 Two Barks, one Polacco, two covered Lighters, and seven Feluccas and Boats, with 316 Corsican Soldiers, intended for the Island of Capraia, failed from hence the 12th Instant. This Detachment is commanded by Colonel Matra; each Soldier received a Present of one Zechin, to encourage them to behave well on the Occasion.

Hague, May 26. Letters from Leghorn, of the 14th Instant, advise, that the Fortress of the Island of Capraia has surrendered to the Corsicans, by Capitulation.

Malaga, June 8. The Princessa, a 74 Gun Ship, arrived here Yesterday with the Jesuits from Cadiz, in several Ships under her Convoy. Those of the Kingdom of Grenada, who had been waiting in this City for some time, were immediately put on board others prepared for their reception; and this Morning the whole Fleet, with between five and six Hundred of those Fathers on board, sailed with a fair Wind for Civita Vecchia, under the Convoy of the Man of War.

Hamburg, May 22. The King of Sweden, in Consequence of the Letter received from the Dissidents of Poland, has caused a Memorial to be drawn up in the Latin Language, and sent to his Envoy at Moscow, with Orders to remit it to the Minister residing there on the Part of Poland. In this Piece his Majesty declares, that he shall employ himself in contributing to get the Dissidents re-established in their civil and religious Rights, in a Manner conformable to the Declarations made by the Empress of Russia and the King of Prussia, Vienna, May 16. The Jesuits established in this Capital, alarmed at the News of their Brethren in the Dominions of the King of Spain, being ordered to retire from thence, and forbid ever to enter into them again, demanded a few Days ago an Audience of the Empress Queen, which having obtained, they acquainted her with the Fear they had of being treated in the same Manner, and to prevent it, have implored her Protection. It is said, her Majesty answered, that if they preserve an irreproachable Conduct, by acquitting themselves faithfully in the Employments of the State, and keep from meddling with Affairs that no ways concern them, they shall suffer no Harm.

Venice, May 10. The Senate has ordered two Men of War, which lie here, together with three more from Port-Mahon, as also from smaller armed Vessels, to repair to Algiers. The Commodore of this small Fleet is to demand of the Dey to ratify the Peace concluded with his Predecessor, and; in case of Refusal, to declare War, and instantly to begin it by bombarding the City.

L O N D O N, May 23.

The Utrecht gazette of the 19th instant, has the following article: "London, May 12. The court hath received from Madrid an account of the motives which engaged the King of Spain to expel the Jesuits from his dominions; and in consequence thereof, have given the necessary orders for preventing the entrance of any of the Jesuits, banished from the Spanish monarchy, into this kingdom."

A letter from Cadiz informs, that four Spanish officers of distinction were just arrived there in a King's frigate from the Bay of Honduras, having been accused of mal-practices in their respective governments.

Extract of a letter from an English traveller at Rome, dated April 28, 1767.

"The inclosed translation, in Italian, of the letter written by the King of Spain to the Pope, concerning the expulsion of the Jesuits from his dominions, is genuine."

On communication of the letter to the college of Cardinals, all the Cardinals and Princes, who have dependence on the courts of Spain and Naples, dropped connexion immediately with the Jesuits.

Matters have been carried so far since, that the Jesuits are forbidden frequenting the houses of such of the nobility as used most to protect them; and those persons who had children or relations in the colleges belonging to the Jesuits, have taken them from thence; nor will they even suffer their domestics to go into their churches.
